

A full-page photograph capturing a triumphant moment in a cycling race. In the foreground, a male cyclist wearing a red Bahrain-Merida jersey with 'Bahrain Merida' and 'Bardet' printed on it is celebrating his victory. He has his arms raised high in a 'V' shape, wearing black gloves. He is also wearing a black and orange helmet, blue sunglasses, and blue socks. He is riding a red and black bicycle. Behind him, another cyclist in a blue and white jersey is hunched over, riding a green and black bicycle. The race is taking place on a paved road with a white line marking. In the background, there are green trees, a white car, and a sign that says '50'. The scene is brightly lit, suggesting a sunny day.
